

NEWS RELEASE

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

TODD P. GRAVES

Contact Don Ledford, Public Affairs • (816) 426-4220 • 400 East Ninth Street, Room 5510 • Kansas City, MO 64106

www.usdoj.gov/usao/mow

SEPTEMBER 26, 2005
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORMER GREEN HILLS OFFICIAL SENTENCED FOR PUBLIC CORRUPTION

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Trenton, Mo., woman who formerly served as an official with the Green Hills Regional Planning Commission (Green Hills RPC) was sentenced in federal court today after admitting that she falsified employment contracts in order to justify salary increases paid to herself and to the former director of the economic development agency.

Denise K. Stottlemire, 53, of Trenton, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Howard F. Sachs this morning to three years of probation that includes several special conditions. The court also ordered Stottlemire to pay a $5,000 fine.

“Stottlemire is prohibited from directly handling or administering any public funds,” Graves said. “Under the terms of her probation, she is barred from engaging in any accounting activities directly involving public funds.”

Graves added that another condition of Stottlemire’s probation requires her to notify any city, state or municipal authority with whom she attempts to contract or work for as an employee of the exact nature of her conviction by providing a copy of the indictment and judgment in this case. Stottlemire is also required to disclose to her probation officer any employment activities that present substantial risk of defrauding individuals, businesses or government entities.

On May 17, 2005, Stottlemire pleaded guilty to using false documents. Her co-defendant in the Sept. 9, 2004, federal indictment, Michael R. Johns, 53, also of Trenton, pleaded guilty to federal program fraud and awaits sentencing.

The Green Hills RPC, headquartered in Trenton, is an economic development agency for an 11-county area in north central Missouri. Johns was the executive director from 1980 to 2002, and Stottlemire was employed as a community planner and assistant director from 1990 to 2002. The Green Hills RPC received funds from a number of federal agencies.

Green Hills Rural Development, Inc. (Green Hills RDI) is a not-for-profit corporation formed by Green Hills RPC in 1981 to be able to receive grants, primarily from a number of federal agencies, to promote rural economic development. Johns was an assistant vice president on the board from 1981 to 2002, and he served as the executive vice president from 1997 to 2002. Stottlemire was not a board member or an officer, but performed grant administration work.

Green Hills RPC provided the staff for Green Hills RDI, and Johns and Stottlemire both performed duties for both entities and received salaries from Green Hills RPC.

“Stottlemire provided false employment contracts that contained forged signatures,” Graves said. “Those fake contracts were used to support additional salary payments to both co-defendants. That additional salary was never approved by the board of directors.”

Johns received $353,355 in unauthorized wages from Green Hills RDI from 1994 to 2002, in addition to his regular salary from Green Hills RPC. Stottlemire received $46,175 in unauthorized wages from Green Hills RDI from 1994 to 2002, in addition to her regular salary from Green Hills RPC. When an auditor questioned the additional salary payments, Johns and Stottlemire submitted four years of false employment contracts for 1996 to 1999 in an attempt to justify the payments. Those false employment contracts, Graves said, contained the forged signature of the president of the Green Hills RDI board of directors.

Johns also admitted that in 1999 he caused loans of approximately $42,200 to be made to the Chillicothe Brunswick Rail Maintenance Authority (CBRA), a company which operated a short-line railroad between Chillicothe, Mo., and Brunswick, Mo., from the Green Hills RDI Revolving Loan Fund. Johns was vice president and a member of the board of directors of CBRA, as well as president and sole shareholder of another company, CS & T, which leased rail equipment to CBRA. Johns admitted that the board of directors had not reviewed or approved the loans to CBRA, and that the loans were in excess of the loan limit imposed by the Economic Development Administration (EDA) of the U.S. Department of Commerce, which provided the funding for the Revolving Loan Fund.

“We believe that the actual amount of loss caused by Johns’ illegal activity is between $350,000 and $500,000,” Graves said.

Johns submitted an annual report to the EDA for the year 1999 stating that the Revolving Loan Fund at Green Hills RDI had been operated in accordance with the regulations of EDA. At the time these loans were made to CBRA, however, Johns knew that the loans violated EDA regulations because they had not been approved by the board of directors and were in excess of the loan limit.

A sentencing hearing for Johns has not yet been scheduled.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney J. Daniel Stewart. It was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the U.S. Department of Commerce, Office of Inspector General.

This news release, as well as additional information about the office of the United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, is available on-line at www.usdoj.gov/usao/mow